The sofa feels like home, when you're sitting beside me
Let's burn the telephone, keep 'em guessing 'till Monday
It's time we look at the reasons for fighting, I'm all shook up
With the wind coming through, oh please don't let go

We're like a pair of falling leaves, you and I
The red and orange, the brown and green against blue sky
Against blue sky

We sit all night and just bask in the TV, carpe diem ain't All that easy, it's time we look at the reasons for fighting
I'm all shook up with the wind coming through Oh please don't let go

We're like a pair of falling leaves, you and I
The red and orange, the brown and green
Against blue sky

Seasons change as do we, as do we
And colors fade and crumble down to the ground
But love me still til we touch the ground
