I'M SCARED

WRITER BURTON CUMMINGS

Said I'm scared, lord I'm scared, I'm terrified never been much on religion but I sure never like to hear the call im scared Lordy Lord I'm shakin' I'm petrified never been much on religion but I showed up, just fell down on my knees heard the choir singing something about good will torn men and even then sleeping in heavenly peace stopped by to see St. Thomas on a cold and dreary New York afternoon something in the air was oh so rare I don't know what it was but I know that it's still right there and I'm scared Lordy Lord I'm shaken I'm terrified, never been much on religion but I showed up and just fell down on my knees (short instrumental) livin' in confusion, searchin' for truth that I'd never found I needed something to really believe turned toward the heavens on a dark and stormy winter afternoon something in the air was oh so rare I'm not really sure what it was but i know for sure that it's still right there, scared, hey hey hey hey hey hey I'm terrified never been much in religion but i showed up fell down on my knees oh oh oh oh oh im scared you know I'm shakin' I'm layin; awake thinking about her now im terrified never been much on religion but I sure enough would like to hear the call common now give me a sign your listening to me you hear me talkin' you hear my cryin', it's confusin' to me lord I'm terrified never been much on religion but I showed up, just fell down on my knees oh oh oh oh oh
