Sometimes the moment comes and I wait for it to fade
And sometimes the stars are aligned
And give me a sign in the shape of her face

Chorus

Coz in this dark she shines a light
I'm wondering if she can feel me here tonight
Coz in her eyes I find my satelites

Waiting in a sea of friends and the words remain unsaid
And by the days I've stepped away
If I can't stay how long; my head (?)

Chorus

[guitar break]

Coz in her eyes I find my satelites

Chorus

Coz in her eyes I find my satelites
