There's lead in the water (you've seen the sun)
Paranoia is my favourite word (so far away)
I'm a social X-ray (you've come undone).
I define my generation.
I'm Jaded
But I took all the things you said
Just to please you,
But I've lost all track of time
At the last party
You're going off your head once again
No one hears you say
A thousand blank voices
No one hears your sigh.
Once again.
What are you going to do once the party ends?
My second favourite word is future (you've seen the sun).
Television tells me I need help (so far away).
I'm an intimate void (you've come undone).
I dream of digital displays
