The party's started and it is getting harder
To compete for your attention, 'cause you're too drunk to listen tonight
The alcohol is causing you to stall through all of this, baby
I'm falling, I'm falling for you

And I aren't alone on the couch
We've gotta get up, get up, get out, get out
The other boys are figuring out
That you aren't exactly all here
They'll take what they can get
Because they think you'll just forget what happens here

So when it's over, I'll wish that you'd been sober
So we could have talked about
All of my feelings for you
I'm trying to tell you
That you are something different
But it won't make no difference
'Cause you're too incoherent to hear

You don't need another drink, babe
I know you're drunk 'cause you tell me that you love me
I could be your one desire
You tell me that you want this
But liquor makes a liar [x2]

'Cause liquor makes a liar
'Cause liquor makes a liar
'Cause liquor makes a liar
'Cause liquor makes a liar

"One more, one more!" yells the rest of the room
As I stand on the side, I'm wishing you'd stop soon
'Cause you've had all you can take, it's not the time or the place
For me to tell you, I'll catch you when you fall on your

Face the facts, that it's such a drag
To watch these other guys
Try to get a piece of your

Asking me if I'm feeling alright
It's just another night
Another night I've wasted

You don't need another drink, babe
I know you're drunk 'cause you tell me that you love me
I could be your one desire
You tell me that you want this
But liquor makes a liar [x2]

'Cause liquor makes a liar
'Cause liquor makes a liar

I'll be holding your hair when you are sick tonight
I'll be wishing that it's your hand, but that's alright
I'll be holding your hair when you are sick tonight
I'll be wishing that it's your hand, but that's alright

You don't need another drink, babe
I know you're drunk 'cause you tell me that you love me
I could be your one desire
You tell me that you want this
But liquor makes a liar [x2]

'Cause liquor makes a liar
'Cause liquor makes a liar
'Cause liquor makes a liar
