If you can forget me
Then why are you still here?
You said you'd be leaving
You made it very clear
And I'm going crazy
Trying to walk away
My mind says to vacate
But my heart says I need to stay
I guess we're something you can't throw away

I shoulda said no
I shoulda went home
That would have been for the best

Oh, girl, what have we gotten ourselves into?

We scream, we fight
It lasts a night
And then I realize
I can't live life if it's without you

If you can forget me
Then why are you still here?
You said you'd be leaving
You made it very clear
And I'm going crazy
Trying to walk away
My mind says to vacate
But my heart says I need to stay
I guess we're something you can't throw away

You're saying "baby"
I'm saying "maybe."
I'm thinking lately
I've missed you bad

Oh, girl, what have we gotten ourselves into?

We laugh, we kiss
Our love is almost fixed
Because I've realized

I can't live life if it's without you

But first things first
I've got to know
Are you sure
You don't wanna let go?
Because last time
You said the same
And left me there
In the rain

But now you realize
You can't live life if it's without me

If you can forget me
Then why are you still here?
You said you'd be leaving
You made it very clear
And I'm going crazy
Trying to walk away
My mind says to vacate
But my heart says I need to stay
I guess we're something you can't throw away

Oh, girl, what have we gotten ourselves into?
Oh, girl, what have we gotten ourselves into?
Oh, girl, what have we gotten ourselves into?
Oh, girl, what have we gotten ourselves into?

If you can forget me
Then why are you still here?
You said you'd be leaving
You made it very clear
And I'm going crazy
Trying to walk away
My mind says to vacate
But my heart says I need to stay
I guess we're something you can't throw away
We'll make this work no matter what it takes
