Nothing is too good
For you are all I live for
Nothing is too good for you
For you are all I live for

I'll bring the moon
For just we two to share
A million stars
I'll sprinkle in your hair

Just say the word
For nothing is too good for you
If you adore eternal happiness
I'll give you more because to give you less
Would be absurd for nothing is too good for you

If you want a love that is sweet and tender
A heart that's always true
Just you call on me and I will send up
Load of promises to you

A passion dreams and castles in the air
The world is yours if you decide to stay here
Just say the word for nothing is too good for you

Nothing is too good
For you are all I live for
I'll bring the moon
For just we two to share
A million stars
I'll sprinkle in your hair
Just say the word
For nothing is too good for you

If you adore eternal happiness
I'll give you more because to give you less
Would be absurd for nothing is too good for you

If you want a love that is sweet and tender
A heart that's always true
Just you call on me and I will send up
Load of promises to you

A passion dreams and castles in the air
The world is yours if you decide to stay here
Just say the word for nothing is too good for you

Nothing is too good
For you are all I live for
Nothing is too good for you
For you are all I live for
Nothing is too good for you
For you are all I live for
Nothing is too good for you
