"Chicken Bucket"

I'm going crazy today cause there's a bat in my attic you can't change the station when it's nothing but static the hommes are dropping and the beats are flopping Charles Dickens is writing and the Scottsmen are fighting

I like wearing chicken buckets on my head
I like race cars and old home bread
I like wearing chicken buckets on my head
I like wearing chicken buckets

Got kitty litter between my toes got shinny glitter on my nose who needs money when you've got friends and who eats the bread when you've got the ends?
