

4 Non Blondes "Mighty lady"

Lost my peace of mind
So quickly I'm aware
And the thoughts of speak
Are sifting through the air
With my constant movement
I drop down to my knees
There's just no attempt
To pin the tail on me

Pull my masculine dancer
In Guidant to the mighty lady
Fill fragile into bray
For what's your name?

Climbing up the walls
The valley far below
Time will only tell
Which way the wind will blow
Key me up my faith
And throw away the spare
I keep moving forward
Hoping she'll be there

Hear this baby crying
That's okay
Where's your mom?
Oh, poor baby
With this steel emotion

That's okay
Where's your shame?
Don't criticize me
And still to marvel pray
For what's your name
