Air - The Chosen One

I saw Jesus on the beach,
Just as the sun was beginning to set.
He said, 'I forgive your sins,
Even the ones that you haven't done yet.'

Chorus:

I am, the chosen one.
I am, the chosen one.
I am, the chosen one.
I am, the chosen one.

The sun was set, and I thought he was done,
He reached in his coat and pulled out a gun.
He put it to his head and blew himself away,
If it was bad before, then it's worse today.

Repeat chorus.

I was upstairs killing the children,
While the family were glued to the screen.
So busy watching television,
They didn't here the children scream out... Repeat chorus.
