In the city of Angels
You'll hear it told Aww, aww, aww
Of two lovers forbidden
To have and hold

At the Shrine of San Pedro
A maiden cried, for their true love was fated,
Fated to die

Then the town stared in wonder
For a the light that appeared on high
Heaven opened in splendor
Angel voices filled the city sky

Every year on San Pedro
True lovers come, to the City of Angels
To hear their song

Chorus-
Every year on San Pedro
True lovers come

To the City of Angels,
