"Searching"

Visit "Searching" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm searching for my own love
A love that no love can replace
I'm looking everywhere
And praying you'll be there

I'm searching for my true love
Don't want a new love to embrace
I know I'm all to blame
My teardrops feed the flame

From city to city
I'm catching every train
My poor heart has journeyed
It knows I'm living in pain

[CHORUS]
I dream of
The day I'll find you
The day you whisper
Dear, that you
Have been lonely
And searching for me too

[Repeat CHORUS]
