Get down girl
go head now
shake it, shake it

i'm laughing at this battle watching boys and girls play games i watch you as you slowly falter and how you strive for any status at all! well the night is so young she's got her mini skirt
on hot damn that girls on fire the boy just wants to get off and she just needed a fix lets see how far this gets you

shake it, shake it
Get down girl

lets stop and rewind this scene is so played out with ulterior motives disguised and your facade is so cute but with nothing to show for it girl i think you need to simmer down and i've seen enough now and that's right bitches i'm calling you out!
led to believe he'll get off and she takes another hit

why can't you see why can't you see what your doing to yourself

(instrumental)

she'll dance around this town fucking young rock boys stand here and watch you crumble stand here and watch you fall you screwed everyone to make it through but you never got a clue baby you're just now the suns coming up just as your coming down god damn that girls a train wreck and that fool never got off the scene bitch did all of his drugs now look how far this got you
