The lights are out and the dance floors waiting but your to busy blending in the crowd the light are out and the dance floors waiting but your to busy following the crowd when you come back down now girl

when you were a young girl did you wanna be something more baby but you feel you're so lost your burning up inside yeah we're clocking in to watch our fate come crashing down
i can't pretend i'm happy when
and now i know its pointless i'm constantly on a down and i'm tierd of waiting waiting climb to the top climb to the top and now your falling again

when i was a young boy i wanted to be something more baby but i can't dance no and i sure as fuck can't sing

why do we play into this motive what are you waiting for tonight you wonder you wait and you can't get through this without a line

lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down,
lets break it down, YEAH!

i'm constantly on a down and i'm tierd of waiting waiting
