

The Honesty "Intentions"

All that you see is gold and luxury
Tear through the walls and rip back the seams
You will see that we're all drowning now
False regulations leave you hanging, mistaken
So get a hold of yourself

Is this how you perceive our lives
Open a book read story lines
Have you ever thought of someone else

This war is just about to end
Aim, strike, fire, get ready for it
You need to find a new way out
Coiled up and locked down
I think we've got you figured out
Your intentions have caught up now
So get a hold of yourself

Find your way out, find your way out

Is this how you perceive our lives
Open a book read story lines
Have you ever thought of someone else

Find your way out, find your way out
Find your way out, find your way out
