Don't send me an invitation
Don't (Don't send me an invitation)
Hurt me anymore (Spare me from humiliation)
Spare me, spare me

You loved two of us, one of us got to lose
I have but one regret, she's the one you choose
Everything was beautiful, I wish you two the best
Please grant my aching heart one last request

Skip my name when you make out the wedding list
Pretend as though I'm someone who never did exist

Don't send me an invitation
Please (Don't send me an invitation)
Don't hurt me anymore (Spare me from humiliation)
Don't send me an invitation
Don't (Don't send me an invitation)
Hurt me anymore (Spare me from humiliation)
Spare me, spare me

I don't wanna read the paper that announces you're engaged
I don't wanna see her picture and your names on the page
When the big day comes, you'll have a celebration
You'll invite all your friends for the joyful occasion

I've lost your love, I've lost all faith and hope
Don't send my crushed dreams to me in an envelope

Don't send me an invitation
Don't (Don't send me an invitation)
Hurt me anymore (Spare me from humiliation)

Already (Don't send me an invitation)
I'm in misery, please spare the humility
Oh, don't (Don't send me an invitation)
Hurt me anymore (Spare me from humiliation)
