Now I know that it's late and it's gettin' towards the end of the night,
And we're stuck in the corner and we're gettin'
ever so tight,
And you know that I would and I'm pretty sure the baby, you might,
Yeah I can tell by the look in your eyes,
We're Hormonized.

Now it ain't the first time that you and me wind up this night,
In a club, in the corner, in the dark on a Saturday night,
Like the very first time that you walked up you and asked for light,
I could tell by the sweat on your thighs,
You're Hormonized.

Well he came in with you,
He's over six feet two,
If gets his hands on me he'll beat me black and blue,
But I can't help but fallin' for your womanly spells,
So let's meet up some place else.

So let's get out of this corner and into the light,
Look at me baby I'm shakin' with fright,
I'm communicatin' with heavy sighs,
I'm Hormonized.

He came in with you,
He's over six feet two,
If gets his hands on me he'll beat me black and blue,
But I can't help but fallin' for your womanly spells,
So let's meet up some place else.

Well your boyfriend's well over six feet tall,
So just gimme your number and I'll give you a call,
You can tell by the look in my eyes,
I'm hormonized,
You can tell by the look in my eyes,
I'm hormonized.
