Iâ€™ve been here once or twice,
Guess youâ€™d say I like the price,
And I love the way it stays open all night.
And the music that they play,
Aintâ€™t like half that stuff you hear today,
Itâ€™s got the kinda rhythm that I like,

Iâ€™m a man that likes to party,
I guess everybody knows,
I drink and dance and ball the whole night through.
But I guess I met my match,
When I walked onto your patch,
Tell me what is that thing that you do?

[chorus]

Tell me who, tell me who the hell are you,
Yeah you! Tell me who the hell are you,
Yeah you! Whatâ€™s your name and howâ€™d you do?
Tell me who the hell are you.

I love my music rockinâ€™
But I dig them latin beats,
They start up some old salsa thing,
And that's when our eyes meet.

Now sheâ€™s dancinâ€™ next to me,
And Iâ€™m as nervous as can be,
And tryinâ€™ hard not to let it show.
But when she kissed me on my lips,
My heart did three backward flips,
Now tell me babe just what I wanna know...

[chorus x 2]
