Take a step back I'm contagious
I'm just a face you missed for ages
Kill the light
We're getting anxious
Sleep all shallow and broken
And our eyes fixed with matches open
If there's hope for us there's hope for us
We watch in wait here's hoping
Catching the cursed bouquet
A dozen roses a dozen names
It's catching
You'll burn for me
Like the flames in your eyes
You'll burn for me
Because you never said goodbye
You'll burn for me
Light the flames in your eyes
You'll burn for me
Because you never said goodbye
Poker face with pocket aces
I ghost-write all your fables
The hero dies in my terrible tales
Where the young hearts are racing
Turn the page still see your face there
No way in hell, it's never over
No charms or four leaf clovers
We rewrite the scenes in your bad dreams
Three more unhappy endings
We rewrite the dreams in your bad scene
Three more unhappy endings
