Pull me from the gallows, pull me from the gallows
Of this fiber-optic nation
I cannot compute why, why we celebrate this mediocrity

Just let me download my latest update right now
Just give me access to my latest opinion
Now, now, give it now (now, give it now)

Unplug me from this fantasy
My eyes have seen the sun
Have we all become voyeurs,
Covered by this digital veil?

Direct my mind, just keep me occupied
Don't let me find something that is worth my time

We like to think that we are more connected
But the truth is that we've never been more divided
It's just too awkward, I need my digital veil

Unplug me from this fantasy
My eyes have seen the sun
Have we all become voyeurs,
Covered by this digital veil?

Direct my mind, just keep me occupied
Don't let me find something that is worth my time

Blow the lid off your hard drive,
And even if I can't comprehend my place in this world,

Pull me from the gallows
Pull me from the gallows
Pull me from the gallows, of this fiber-optic nation.
Pull me from the gallows, of this fiber-optic nation.
Pull me from the gallows, of this fiber-optic nation.
Pull me from the gallows, of this fiber-optic nation.
Pull me from the gallows, of this fiber-optic nation.
