It feels like
It feels like I'm on fire
I'm on a roll
I'm a take this one home when I let go and I'm not gonna stop till it's done
I'm dedicated to the decimation
Blast off into consciousness, time to leave the world behind
Brainstorm - last out at sea
Life is nothing but a dream
I stand before you from the outside looking in A quick chance to get back to basics, discipline weighs ounces but regrets weigh tons Mentally, I'm moving mountains

I'm taking off, the grind is killing me
I'm spread so thin I'm anorexic
I'm taking off, the grind is killing me
I'm spread so thin I'm anorexic

Reach out, reach out
Mentally I've just drown as tall as your God

It feels like
It feels like I'm on fire

I'm taking off, the grind is killing me
I'm spread so thin I'm anorexic
I'm taking off, the grind is killing me
I'm spread so thin I'm anorexic
