I'm a half-hearted fool
With a heart that's broke in two
A quarter & a kiss is all
It should be worth to you

I must be the last of my kind
Cause' ya tried for me to spot out the signs
The love has disappeared and Darling ya shouldn't even try

After every fight we always wonder what we're fighting for
Beat me up and mark me ya ya stole me but I am not
yours
As you cry, I wanna lie
Say I love ya so, darlin' even though I dont
There's no easy way, to ease the pain
Roses and the tulips and,
We need a way, they have there days
So its time to say goodnight and goodbye

Your so bright that ya shine right through
All the problems that I alway try to lay on you Won't ya drink me off darlin'
Won't ya put some air in this room

I can't believe a what I can
I hold inside of my hand
Well end up partying and Might decide to mess up the plan
I'd be a lying if I told ya that we would work you

After every fight we always wonder what we're fighting
Beat me up and mark me ya ya stole me but I am not
yours
As you cry, I wanna lie
Say I love ya so, darlin' even though I dont
There's no easy way, to ease the pain
Roses and the tulips and,
We need a way, they have there days
So its time to say goodnight and goodbye

Nobodys singing about you any more
You thought you heard it well you musta' heard wrong
It's my business and that's alright
Don't you see that...

As you cry, I wanna lie
Say I love ya so, darlin' even though I dont
There's no easy way, to ease the pain
Roses and the tulips and,
We need a way, they have there days
So its time to say goodnight and goodbye

Goodbye...
