Spin your body around
Now your feet are gonna hit the ground
I am going sleepless and you're out of lullabies

Honey honey honey
You're the death of me
Won't stop holding my hands down
Baby baby baby
You'll Never let me...

You've got a dark heart
You've got a cold kiss

You want my love, my love
Love, (You want my love)

Everybody's breaking
Every time you start shaking
Don't come calling my name
Everybody's bawlin'
Every time you come a-calling
I want you to know

Honey honey
You were the first one
Darling darling
Around my door
Honey honey
You'll never let me

You've got a dark heart
You've got a cold kiss
You've got a dark heart
You've got a cold kiss

You want my love, my love
Love(You want my love)

Always turning back to you
You never let me down
Loving your illusions
Staring at a crooked crown

You always let me down [x3]

You want my love, my love, my love
(You want my love)

Honey, honey, honey you're the death of me
Honey, honey, honey will you ever see?
