So let's step back to where it all first began
I don't know how many times I've said
It's just so easy to forget
And I've been down this road once or twice before
But never found what I was looking for
I know I'll find what I've been looking for You're tearing apart this heart of mine
I'm only gonna say it one more time
You've got it good when you don't realize
That you're stuck inside a box
Woah
Looks like my memory is coming to bring me down
Well, this isn't the first time that you've knocked me to the ground
And so I'll go
I'm leaving home
Because this never mattered
I'm falling below
Below
Well, you don't see just who it is I'm trying to be
I'm nothing more than just another memory
Of someone you would never believe
We can't stay here when it's getting too dark to see
There's no more looking back on everyday right now
On everyday
You're tearing apart this heart of mine
I'm only gonna say it one more time
You've got it good when you don't realize
That you're stuck inside a box
Woah
Looks like my memory is coming to bring me down
Well, this isn't the first time that you've knocked me to the ground
And so I'll go
I'm leaving home
Because this never mattered
I'm falling below
And we all
Are letting go
Of the things that we had
Loved so much before

And keeping all these secrets in my head
And all the things that you and I have said
Looks like my memory is coming to bring me down
Well, this isn't the first time that you've knocked me to the ground
And so I'll go
I'm leaving home
Because this never mattered
I'm falling below
And we all
Are letting go
Of the things that we had
Loved so much before
Before
