"Perfect Drug"

It's hard to swallow every pill
I swore I'd keep it off my tongue
Sometimes I need it really bad
But only you can give me that
I've been searching for a fix
Your high is always next to none
You were never meant to last
But now you're back, uh
But now you're back
Happened so fast
You were never meant to last, oh-oh
But now you're back

The only drug I need tonight
Is something that I can't describe
Just keep it deep inside
Keep it deep inside
The only drug I need tonight
That no one else but you provides
I'm shaken and I don't know why
You are the perfect drug

I am still addicted to you
Overdose until I'm done
I just wanna get the chance
To move on to a better path
It's not like it's against my will
I gotta live with what I've done
I'm hopelessly devoted still
Wish you were gone
But now you're back
Happened so fast
And now you're back

The only drug I need tonight

Is something that I can't describe
Just keep it deep inside
Keep it deep inside
The only drug I need tonight
That no one else but you provides
I'm shaken and I don't know why
You are the perfect drug

The only drug I need tonight
Is something that I can't describe
Just keep it deep inside
Keep it deep inside
The only drug I need tonight
That no one else but you provides
I'm shaken and I don't know why
You are the perfect drug

Cause' baby, you're the perfect drug
You know you are
You know you are
You are the perfect drug
