I'm back up high on life, I'm flying
But now you've come you've come around when shit goes down
Last time we kissed you left me dying
I thought that I
I buried you deep in the ground

Why you have to stop this beating
Opening and closing feelings
Why you have to stop this beating
Why you have to stop this feeling
I don't want it, I don't need it
Why you have to stop this feeling

Get out of my head
Get out of my heart
Cause there ain't no place for you anymore
When you're leaving the scar
(when you're leaving the scar)

You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar

The door is open just keep walking
And when it shuts
The cuts you made will heal again

Why you have to stop this beating
Opening and closing feelings
Why you have to stop this beating
Why you have to stop this feeling
I don't want it, I don't need it
Why you have to stop this feeling

Get out of my head
Get out of my heart

Cause there ain't no place for you anymore
When you're leaving the scar
(when you're leaving the scar)

You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar

Get out of my head
Get out of my heart
Cause every time I let you in
You're leaving the scar
(you're leaving the scar)

You're leaving the scar
You-you're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
Hey, you're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
You're leaving the scar
