Now I've seen another suicidal
Groom left all alone in the back
Of this room it doesn't meant
Anything to me
Your kiss, your lips
And your soft fingertips
I'm on my knees, I want to please
I want you inside me
Be the whore that I love,
I'll be the star that you suck

Come together with me now
Till the end of time
Together Forever!

It only took one look in your eyes
And I was lost for this life I'm under your spell
Too many secrets
One syringe, drug binge
Messy hair, no underwear
More lube, what to do
I want to be inside you
