Find you doing too much.
Don't you think I would fall out?
I know the pressure's on your mind.
I you feel you're wasting precious time.
Daylight shining in your eyes.
Coming, staring, no surprise.
I know the moment slips away, when you're too caught up in yesterday.

Bumbling steady.
Bumbling already and with wondering why I'm calling me ready and I don't know if I'm standing in your eyes.

Hate me.
Pass and feel the same.
Wearily.
Playing her own game.

I know you want to rearrange.
But it has to be so hard to change.

Bumbling steady.
Bumbling already and with one reply I'm calling me
ready and I don't know if I'm standing in your eyes.

Bumblin'

Bumbling steady.
Bumbling already and with one reply I'm calling me
ready and I don't know if I'm standing in your eyes.
Bumbling steady.
Bumbling already and with one reply I'm calling me
ready and I don't know if I'm standing in your eyes.
