Waiting for simple plan
Time to break this tired stand
I don't mind, not at all
You can stay and watch me fall

The gun was pointed to your head
You could leave or be misled
I don't mind, not at all
From where you stand you had to go

And you don't know what might have been
You just turn, go and maybe you win
But I'm on the other side
I'm on the other side you're on

You and I were much the same
You chose love and I chose fame
But I don't mind, not at all
You can climb or you can fall

And you don't know what might have been
You just turn, go and maybe you win
But I'm on the other side
I'm on the other side you're on

Cause you got yours in the sun
Where the rain never comes
And the side I'm waiting on
Is the same in your eyes

And you don't know what might have been
You just turn, go and maybe you win
But I'm on the other side
But I'm on the other side
But I'm on the other side
I'm on the other side you're on
