Questions and Answers keep running through my mind
all night.

Just dreamin' of questions and hopin' and prayin' the
answers are right.

Question: What do you do if your love is cheatin'?

Answer: You swallow your pride.

Question: What if you think she's lyin'?

The answer to that is to hold back the cryin'.

It's nothing that won't keep, you better try and get some sleep.

Questions and Answers keep running through my mind
all night.

Just dreamin' of questions and hopin' and prayin' the
answers are right.

Question: Am I a fool for hangin' around her?

Answer: Sure I'm a fool!

Then leave her.

That's not a bad suggestion.

The answer to that is it's out of the question.

It's better that you part.

But breakin' up would break my heart.

Questions and Answers keep running through my mind
all night.

Just dreamin' of questions and hopin' and prayin' the
answers are right.
