Generations lost
To a scheme based on sheer power
Was it your design?
No it's always some one else's
You have paved the way
To a society designed to kill our dreams
Yes you've paved the way
To where every fucking dream is killed

You'll be the first to point your fingers
At the beaten and the down

Generations lost
To a welfare with no future
Where the dignity
Is equal with your bank account
Yes you've paved the way
To where our dreams are kept in silence
Yes you've paved the way
To where every fucking dream is killed
