You bet it all
You bet it all that I couldn't get (I couldn't get)
I couldn't get with her
Cause you said that I would never make the grade It's just because (just because)
It's just because you're love her
Yeah, she had you at hello
But if you touch her that will be your last mistake

You idolize her
Better take your eyes off her

You better watch yourself I'll put you in the hospital
I'll break your jaw and then your mom will feed you
popsicles
You think you have a chance with her but it's impossible
This will be the last time you mess with my girl

Took her out
You took her out once when we were on (when we were on)
When we were on a break
And you said she had the time of her life
You said you'd give (you said you'd give)
You said you'd give her everything
Everything I never could
But if I were you I'd watch my back

You think you're something
But we all know that you got nothing

You better watch yourself I'll put you in the hospital
I'll break your jaw and then your mom will feed you
popsicles
You think you have a chance with her but it's impossible
This will be the last time you mess with my girl

You think that you got something to say
Then why do you keep running away
Oh no

You better watch yourself I'll put you in the hospital

I'll break your jaw and then your mom will feed you
popsicles
You think you have a chance with her but it's impossible
This will be the last time you mess with

Mess with my girl
My girl
You mess with my girl
