I can't understand why you treat me this way
I say you can't understand what I read and stuff I say You come around here saying that you want to get away
When all you have to do is hit your knees and start to pray
I say I can't understand my God up above
Because after all I do, He still gives me love
I say I can't see what you see inside of me
But I know the truth, and the truth will set me free
When I'm all alone, I say You're always by my side
I say the Lifter of my head, the Lifter of my pride
I say I can't wait until I hear the trumpets sound
And You will come back and once again walk this ground
I give You all my glory; I give it all to You
For all the stuff You've done
And all that which You do
I say for I can't endure the things I see in this world day
by day
But I can always count on You and give You all my praise
Ah, yes
You're listening to the funky sounds of the Insyderz Comin' to ya from the motor city Detroit Ah yeah, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, hey
I can't understand why you treat me this way
I say you can't understand what I read and stuff I say You come around here saying that you want to get
When all you have to do is hit your knees and start to pray
I say I can't understand my God up above
Because after all I do, He still gives me love
I say I can't see what you see inside of me
But I know the truth, and the truth will set me free
When I'm all alone, I say You're always by my side
I say the Lifter of my head, the Lifter of my pride
I say I can't wait until I hear the trumpets sound
And You will come back and once again walk this
I give You all my glory; I give it all to You

For all the stuff You've done
And all that which You do
I say for I can't endure the things I see in this world day
by day
But I can always count on You and give You all my praise
