"Screams Of Suffocation"

Words of my appritiation
Will never come out trough
My screams of suffocation
I tried to reach to you
But my mind is lacking wisdom
In anger I Sream and shout
No escape from this prison
Come closer, LET ME OUT!
Our eyes are slowly burning
No way, I don't pretend
Trough me you're all returning
The future, a painful end
YEAH! My heart is bleeding
Oooh! Of the love I'm needing
See the world with my own two eyes
The apron string is clipped
Trough the air I feel the sparks fly
My mortal soal's been ripped
You No Longer need Attention
A flaire twists, the half devides
