I walk my way, just like I should
Have to go, but I would stay if I could
My boat of life has sailed for many years
Some fell aboard and we brought them tears

But we never know, oh, where to go
No we never know, where to go

But we always know that life won't leave
When you die a certain truth is revealed
The plans we've made are like the waves we've sailed
And the lifeship travels on

A thing in the way, will we die today
Disappear and go away ?
If we'll drown we'll sink down
But our soals will ever stay

'Cause we never know, oh where to go
No, we never know, oh where to go

But we always know that life won't leave
When you die a certain truth is revealed
The plans we've made are like the waves we've sailed
And the lifeship travels on
And the lifeskip travels on
