I Have a Father Who Can!

Verse One:

I cannot make a world and hold it in my hands
I cannot make the lightening flash across the land
I cannot take a piece of clay and mold it into man
But I have a father, I have a father who can.

Chorus:

Now he sits high and looks low and guides my feet
where ever I go.
When I don't understand I have a father, I have a father who can

Verse Two:

I can't make a cloud and ascend it in the sky
I can't love humanity so much that I would die
I can't even name the stars or count the many grains of sand
I have a father, I have a heavenly father who can

Chorus:

Now he sits high and looks low and guides my feet
where ever I go.
When I don't understand I have a father, I have a father who can

Chorus:

Now he sits high and looks low and guides my feet
where ever I go.
When I don't understand I have a father, I have a father yes I have a father I have a father who can
