CHORUS

He ain't never done me nothin'
Done me nothin' but good
Nothin' but good
Ooo, ooo ooo,
He ain't never done me nothin'
Done me nothin' but good,
Nothin' but good.

VERSE 1

Job was a righteous man, the devil couldn't doubt it.
He surely loved the Savior, there was no doubt about it.
But satan cursed his body from his feet to his head;
Then Told him all his children and his cattle were dead.
Then Job's wife said, "Why don't you curse your God
and die?"
But then Job said, "Woman, you're speakin' like a foolish child".

CHORUS

VERSE 2

I gave my heart to Jesus and I took Him as my Savior.
I cast my lots with the chosen ones and I started out for Heaven.
Soon I was forsaken and my friends left one by one;
But the good Lord walked beside me and He never left me alone.
He fed me when I was hungry,
He cheered me when I was sad.
He has been the dearest friend this child has ever had.

CHORUS

VERSE 3

History tells of Polycarp who died for the gospel's sake.
They built a fire around his feet and then tied him to a stake.
But the fire could not consume him,
So they pierced him with a sword, the blood ran down,
put out the fire

But still he praised the Lord.
Now all these years I've served Him, He ain't done me
nothin' but good.
Well, I won't repent and I won't recant,
Just tell me why I should.
