He Understands My Tears

Verse I

It's hard to believe He still loves me knowing how wrong I have been
When all I can say is I'm sorry
And all I can feel is my sin

Chorus:

He understands, when all I can do is cry
He feels the hurt that no one can see down inside and when the words get in the way
I know He still hears
For He understands my tears

Verse II

You may not believe that I'm broken
For all you can see is my smile
Oh, but He hears the heart that's unspoken and He gives me strength thru each trial

Chorus:

He understands, when all I can do is cry
He feels the hurt that no one can see down inside
and when the words get in the way
I know He still hears
for He understands my tears

Oh and when the words get in the way
I know He still hears
For He understands when no one else can
He understands my tears
