what you heard was coming from the lips of devils spelling out the words on black boards for everyone to see

my subconscious is working off the clock again he's blacking out the worst of it filtering the rest filtering the...

do we think the walls are closer than they seem and i am close to you and i lost everything and she said to be careful, i am careful, i see ghost folling me, watching my memories on movie screens

and ghost calling my name, from places we used to live when we were kids
and ghost following me, watching my memories on movie screens
back home
what you saw was an angel that was cast from shadows stretching on for miles and miles
for everyone to you clear the hurdle, theres another in its place we fall to pieces for another pretty face

ghost following me, watching my memories on movie
