(La, la, la, la...)

Broken radio
Ending of the world
April showers down
On a rusty English Town

Never can a man be satisfied scratching in the dark
Never can a man be pacified with an arrow in his heart

Can you work out what it is?
The life you was born to live
Yea, what you get is what you give
In the life you was born to live

(La, la, la, la...)

Wake up if you dare
What will you find there?
Sixty million lives
Flash before your eyes

(La, la, la, la...)
