I was born at midnight,
I was up running by dawn
Ain't nobody can stop me now,
'cause I was out the door and gone
Everybody knows you better,
Try and keep outta my way
Because some people come and go,
But I'm evil and I'm here to stay
You know I can kill a man,
Not even care
I can make love to you little girl,
Till she just can't go nowhere
That's the way I live,
Just fighting and lovin' day to day
You know some people come and go,
But I'm evil and I'm here to stay
Well get me a one way ticket,
On that road to hell
You ever try to cross me, man,
You ain't gonna live to tell
No, no you better listen to what I say
You know some people come and go,
But I'm evil and I'm here to stay
I said some people come and go,
But I'm evil and I'm here to stay
Well you better not try to cut me down,
'cause I'm evil and I'm here to stay
