When you think you've got problems you don't really need
They may be not as bad as they seem
Cause in a world full of misery with hatred and greed
Your problems are another man's dream

Now when your own little world seems to be in a state
And you think you may be losing mind
Just remember the people
Who only can wait for happiness they never will find,
and

Chorus:
You know problems come and problems go
This is something you should know
There's people in the world today
Who don't have nothing but hell to pay

Now when your life and success
Has got you living in doubt
And you're feeling like nowhere to turn
Just remember the world
That you don't know about
And all the lessons that you can, 'cause

Chorus (2x)

When you think you've got problems you don't really
need
They may be not as bad as they seem
Cause in a world full of misery with hatred and greed
Your problems are another man's dream, and
