It could all get blown away Lyrics

Riding so high sailing the seas of success
How long will it last baby
That's just anybody's guess
Let me give you fair warning
Tomorrow never knows
Ever since I was down there yeah
That's just the way it goes

So many times (many times)
I've seen it happen
Count your blessings while you may
Just when you think you got it all
It could all get blown away
It could all get blown away
Yeah yeah yeah

She tells you she loves you
And your feeling good today.
She kisses you with passion
But you know passion fades away
Like a robber at midnight
Someone steals it from your home
Soon you're asking the daylight
Why am I all alone?

So many times (many times)
I've seen it happen
Count your blessings while you may.
Just when you think you got it all
It could all get blown away
Yes it could all get blown away
Blown away yeah

Well let me give you fair warning
Tomorrow never knows
Ever since I was down there yeah
That's just the way it goes

Cos you know so many times

I've seen it happen
Count your blessings while you may
Just when you think you got it all
It could all get blown away
It could all get blown away
