People say that you act so untrue
But I needed somebody like you
When I learned all the news I was blue
Well it sticks like glue
Baby it sticks like glue

Well I told you how much all it hurts
But you had never listened to my words
You're so tricky, so chicky, so cool
Now I know the rule, baby
Now I know the rule

Well I'm standing right here on my knees
But you do never listen to my pleas
You don't have to tell me baby
Where you've been last night
I don't wanna fight, no
I don't wanna fight

People say that you act so uncool
Listen girl please stop treating me cruel
I was fool I was hopelessly fool
Now I know the rule, baby
Now I know the rule
