You really like to cause me pain
You really like to watch me going insane
But after all you say and do
How can I baby feel the same to you?

You really like to see me crying
You really like to watch me at the verge of dying
But after all you said to me
I beg you baby please do set me free
Oh set me free now

/Guitar Break/

You really like to make me blue
Imagine that I feel the same to you
And after all you say and do
Shame on you oh baby shame on you

You like to act extreme unkind
It's true that people say that love is making blind
And after all you made to me
I beg you baby please do set me free
Oh set me free
