We're goin down,
down to the valley of the growers
We're headed down,
down into the valley of the growers

Together we're a team,
apart we're never seen,
One of these days I'll show her Love is gonna blossom
down in the valley of the growers

The journey, it starts at the top of the hill where the air is thin as can be No more time to waste once we get that taste of the future's fruitful tree

She says she's into me
I don't know, but I want to see

We're goin down,
down to the valley of the growers
We're headed down,
down into the valley of the growers

Together we're a team,
apart we're never seen,
One of these days I'll show her
Love is gonna blossom
down in the valley of the growers

We're making good time, we're hauling it double but her face has lost its glee Down is where we're headed, as she solemnly dreaded the future's uncertainty

I guess she's still into me
I don't know, but I want to see

We're goin down,
We're headed down,

Together we're a team,
apart we're never seen,
One of these days I'll show her
Love is gonna blossom
