She needs a straight jacket, pills, and a shrink
But the more she's insane,
The more I think I want her
What's your story now?
I get the feeling she would sleep with my friends
And it should piss me off but instead I'm ok
(HEY! ) What's your story cause she loco and I know
That I'm never gonna, never gonna turn her away

Oh crazy baby
What's your story now?
And I don't know if she noticed
But she'd make Charles Manson look away
The girl is crazy
She don't say she's sorry now
And I don't know if she knows this
But she got me going crazy just the same

And she's the type of girl to throw away the rubber
Then she's gone for nine months coming back you're the father!
What's your story now?
And I don't know if I need be told
But crazy things glitter and I know that she's gold

What's your story?
She can't be left alone
Cause at any minute, any minute she could blow

Oh crazy baby
What's your story now?
And I don't know if she noticed
But she'd make Charles Manson look away
The girl is crazy
She don't say she's sorry now
And I don't know if she knows this
But she got me going crazy just the same

And I know she could be locked up any day
And I know that this is what she'd say

Ba da da da da da da da da da da da da [x4]

She needs a straight jacket, pills, and a shrink
And she's insane and I'm on the brink!
Never gonna throw her away

Baby,
What's your story now?
And I don't know if she noticed
But she'd make Charles Manson look away
The girl is crazy
She don't say she's sorry now
And I don't know if she knows this
But she got me going crazy just the same

(Oh, oh) What's your story now?
(Oh, oh) And I don't know if she's crazy
And know that I'm not walking out the door (walkin' out
the door, walkin' out the door)
(Oh, oh) What's your story now?
(Oh, oh) And I don't know if she's crazy
And know that I'm not walking out the door (walkin' out
the door, walkin' out the door)

And I know she could be locked up any day
And I know that this is what she'd probably say...
