What'll happen when you're gone
Miles away and i'm all alone
Without my best friend by my side
I'll always remember how we laughed and cried

Will i know what to do
When the sky is falling down
Will you answer me
When i'm calling out
Hear the angels sing
Let your voice ring loud and long
Ease my pain
Heal my wounds
Just tell me you're coming soon
Coming soon

I see your face
I know i'm fine
You held my hand
As i crossed the line
You were there
Through the fear
And all i need is to
Hear you coming
Coming
Coming here
