Dayo umba dayo, mamba geeayoh
Don't look any further

Someone to count on in a world ever-changing
Here I am, stop where you're standing
What you need is a lover, someone to take over
Oh girl, don't look any further

Strange when you think of the chances
That we'd both be in a state of mind
Too cool to be careless, looking for the right thing
Oh baby, don't look any further

Dayo umba dayo, mamba geeayo
Don't look any further - don't you look no further
Dayo umba dayo, najambay umbayoh
Don't look any further

Tonight, tonight, we're gonna taste a little paradise
Rocking all night long - rocking all night long
Daylight, daylight, I'll still be looking in your ebony eyes
And we'll go on and on and on and on

Dayo umba dayo, mamba geeayo
Don't look any further, don't you look no further

Someone to count on in a world ever-changing
Here I am, hey, stop where you're standing
What you need is a lover, to love you all over
Oh girl, don't look any further

Tonight, tonight, we're gonna taste a little paradise
Rocking all night long, rocking all night long
Daylight, daylight, I'll still be looking in your ebony eyes
And we'll go on and on and on and on

Dayo umba dayo, mamba geeayo
Don't look any further, don't you look no further
Dayo umba dayo, najambay umbayoh
Don't look any further
