Hey, look around you, everything's helter-skelter
Listen up, I warn you, run for cover, run
Bang, it happened, time's up, Armageddon
Fire, meltdown, the sky is crumblin' in

Black curtains never endin'
Black curtains

Escape, you're jokin', can't find no place to run
Hair is burnin', my flesh is bubblin' up
Blood is boilin', taste copper on my tongue
Fate is comin', welcome it with a smile

Black curtains never endin'
Black curtains, fall
Black curtains never endin'
Black curtains

Something's under my skin
Somethings very strange
That is playing with my mind
Telling me to kill you

Am I dreamin'? My heart pounds my chest
Held for ransom in a spider's web
Suffocatin', no one hears my calls
Never endin' till the black curtain falls

Snakes surround me offerin' their death kiss to me
Down, I'm drownin', how long I hold my breath
Dogs are chasin', my legs are paralyzed
Pray, don't find me, my life is fadin' fast

Black curtains never endin'
Black curtains, fall
Black curtains never endin'
Black curtains
